BOOK SYNOPSIS

Praise for Chloe Caldwell: "I read it a couple of months ago in one cant-put-it-d-wn-even-though-its-the-middle-of-the-night sitting. Its as intense and interesting and clear-hearted as they come."—Cheryl Strayed "Ill read anything Chloe Caldwell writes. Shes a rare bird: fearless, dark, prolific, unpretentious, and truly honest."—Elisa Albert "Nothings sexier than first love and first intimacies, and Caldwell's brave autobiographical tale twists the trope into a powerful story about unexpectedly falling in love with a woman and the discoveries, sexual and otherwise, that ensue."—Time Out New York "The essays in this collection are as exuberant as they are sad. Her storytelling is as vulnerable as it is bombastic. These essays roll in gangsta, but wear freshly picked daisies in their hair."—Rookie Magazine Flailing in jobs, failing at love, getting addicted and un-addicted to people, food, and drugs—Ill Tell You in Person is a disarmingly frank account of attempts at adulthood and all the less than perfect ways we get there. Caldwell has an unsparing knack for looking within and reporting back whats really there, rather than what shed like you to see. Chloe Caldwell is the author of the novella Women, and the essay collection Legs Get Led Astray. Her work has appeared in the Sun, Salon, VICE, Hobart, Nylon, the Rumpus, Mens Health, and LENNY, among others. She teaches personal essay and memoir writing in New York City and lives in Hudson.
